

Hearth by Moonacres | New Position | Food & Beverage Manager

Hearth is the Southern Highlands newest café located at Ngununggula Southern Highlands Regional Gallery is looking for Food & Beverage Manager!

Hearth offers an a la carte flavour-driven seasonal menu created using the freshest ingredients from Moonacres Farm and local growers. This new cafe holds true to the Moonacres philosophy of being committed to the ethical production of the best quality food from farm to table.

OUR VALUES:

- Fresh local ingredients from our farm and local growers
- Flavour-driven, seasonal menu
- Warm, welcoming, inclusive atmosphere
- No-waste philosophy
- Work with our inspirational Chef Sabine Spindler (Pilu, Cornersmith), and her talented team.
- Join a well-recognised company in the Southern Highlands, that includes another cafe, cooking school, farm and now us!

To learn more, follow our socials @hearthbymoonacres

YOU BRING:

- Passion for good food and service and human interaction
- Professionalism and ability to work with grace under pressure
- Experience in training staff and delegating
- Love of personal growth and development
- Desire to build something special 'from the ground up'

APPLY:

To apply, please send your cover letter and your resume to Sabine Spindler by email sabine@moonacres.com.au